

Donor Bill of Rights

Philanthropy is a generous act, designed to promote the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing. To ensure that that our donors and prospective donors have full confidence in LEARN and its programs, we declare that all our donors have the following rights:

- To be informed of LEARN's mission, the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
- To be informed of the identity of those serving on the LEARN's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
- To have access to the LEARN's most recent financial statements.
- To be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
- To be assured that information about your donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
